

IAAR Training Course Testimonies

From a Teacher – For the first time, I feel prepared to share the Gospel!

From an Educator & Businessman

This course is 'light years' ahead of any course, seminar, etc. I've taken in the church during my whole lifetime. ...He's 68

From a Youth Pastor – When I started to take this class I was very negative. I didn't see how four printed lessons could possibly be effective in sharing and leading people to Christ. But I'm ending up very positive. In fact we haven't even finished but I have seven different presentations going with people. It is starting to interfere with my job!

From an Associate Pastor – 2 Timothy 2:2 talks of taking what you have learned (the Gospel and being a disciple) and giving it to others who will be faithful and pass it along also.

This course has challenged me in that I have not made this a priority in my life and walk. I realized that I have not shared with another believer how to have conversations, how to explain the Gospel or what Christianity is really about, or even how to lead someone in becoming a disciple of Jesus. I feel that this is something God wants me to make a priority. I feel silly and embarrassed saying it because one would think that this is a standard requirement for anyone in the pastor role.

Learn To Share Your Faith: It's All About Relationship Training Course

The It's All About Relationship (IAAR) training course teaches Christians how to bring up the subject of faith with people they already know or meet in life, how to engage in a pleasant conversation about it, then offer IAAR as a option for sharing more about the faith we have, and finally, how to calmly and patiently lead them to faith in Christ utilizing IAAR.

A complete package of disciple making resources is included in the course which will help you effectively reach out and offer the Good News to anyone God directs across your path.

The course utilizes various learning methods including reading, watching and responding to videos, sharing with other participants, meeting with a Mentor, practicing the four IAAR lessons, and completing various responses to each assigned activity.

Dr. Robert Coleman

Author - The Master Plan of Evangelism

"I am glad to see how Relational Evangelism and IAAR utilizes so many of the concepts I believe and teach. It will help you put effective, fruitful evangelism to work in your life and ministry."

Billy Graham, wrote of his book: "Few books have had as great an impact on the cause of world evangelization in our generation as The Master Plan of Evangelism."

Loren Cunningham

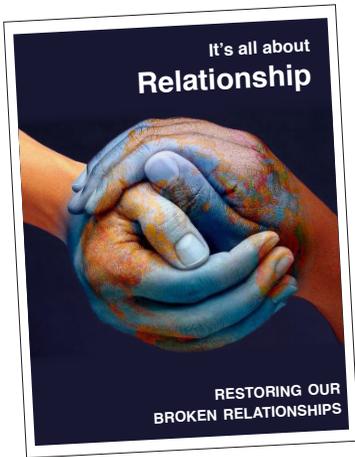

Youth With A Mission, YWAM President

Millennial's are longing for lasting, authentic relationships, especially when so many of them have come from dysfunctional families, and society in general.

This Relational guide (It's All About Relationship), will serve your group in their outreach to others. IAAR focuses on relationships with language this generation uses. It will make for fruitful, and friendly sharing of the love of God and explaining how Jesus made a relationship with our Father in heaven possible. Yes, how they can be in Our Father's very own family. Take it—use it—and enjoy fruitfulness.

Loren and his wife founded Youth With a Mission in 1960 and currently YWAM has thousands of young adult working in dozens of countries around the world. He would like to see IAAR translated into 130 languages.

35 Years and Counting...

IAAR is not street evangelism, there is nothing “in your face” about it. IAAR is built on a calm, respectful strategy that seeks to “earn the right to be heard.”

The IAAR model has resulted in thousands of people coming to know Christ. Churches, missions agencies, missionaries, campus ministries, and Christians in many different cultures have successfully used IAAR to empower their disciple making ministries over the last 35 years. Professed atheists, agnostics, scientists, professors, criminals, “good people,” rich, poor, young, old, hard-hearted, “religious” people, people with different sexual orientations, etc. have all been impacted for Christ using IAAR’s methodology.

One large church running about 2000, used IAAR on a congregational level and saw a 35% growth in new members in one year. It is an effective way to train people to comfortably and confidently connect with non-believers outside of the four walls of the church available today.

What is It’s All About Relationship?

There are 4 presentations (taking about 35 minutes each) normally done one a week over 4 weeks. IAAR walks through these basic Bible concepts:

- Man’s broken relationship with God.
- What God did to restore that relationship.
- What God asks of us and promises us if we reestablish our relationship with Him.
- How he works in our life when we have reconnected with him.

The goal of Relational Evangelism using IAAR isn’t just to take people through another course.

Our hope is that training in IAAR will unleash our people to take the Gospel to family, friends, neighbors, coworkers and casual acquaintances.

Josh McDowell
Author - More Than A Carpenter

“It’s All About Relationship is a personal evangelism tool that provides a strategic framework for sharing the Gospel with others in a non-confrontational but comprehensive and respectful way.

If you are one of the many who needs to be equipped to share the Gospel, this is a powerful tool that is easy and effective to use.”

A world renowned Christian apologist, Josh McDowell, has spoken in over 80 countries and 700 Universities around the world.

Course Benefits

1. Gain a better understanding of your faith.
